Dedication

Georg, the senior class humbly dedicates the 1966 volume of the Legend to you.

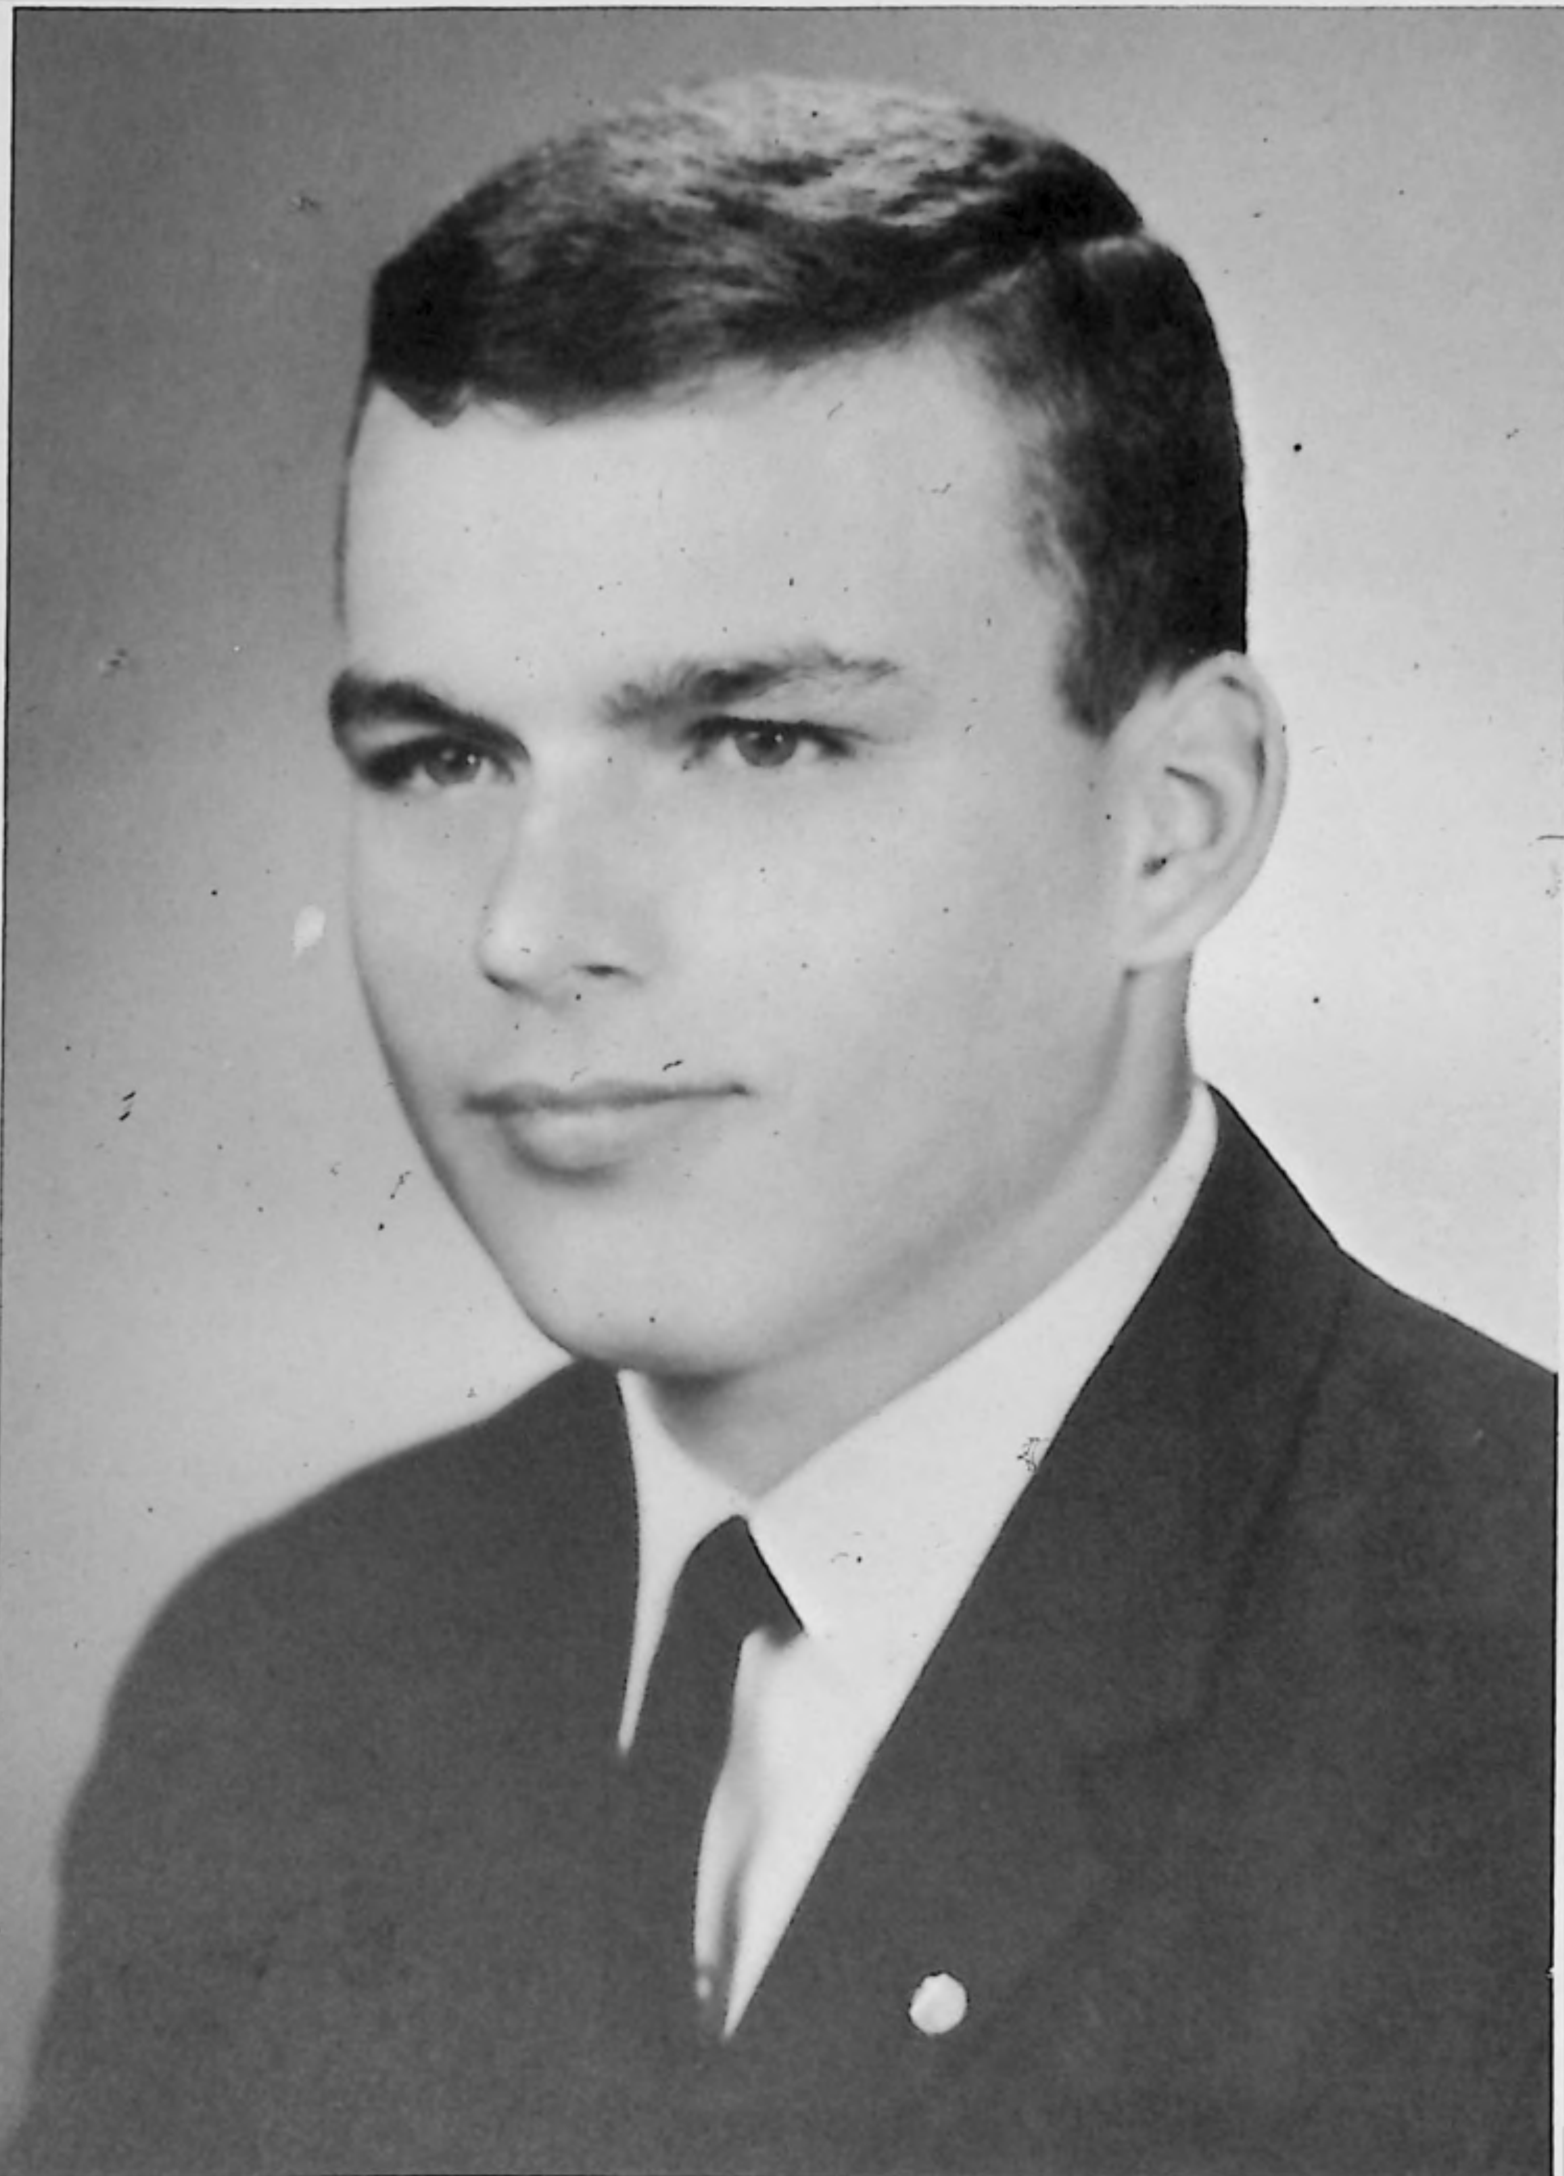
Sent from Otterbach, Germany by the International Christian Youth Exchange, you arrived in Scottdale July, 1965 to spend one year with the J. W. Hawk Jr. family.

Much excitement was aroused long before your arrival. We wondered how you would look, how you would talk, just what you would be like. And you have been everything we hoped you would—exciting, intelligent, full of fun, and most important you have been "one of us."

You left behind everything you loved to come to our land—your country, your family, your friends, your school. We are grateful, for you have helped us to grow in many ways.

Even now, as we look to graduation as a parting, we know we will eventually see our friends through the years. But it is hard to realize we may never see your glittering eyes and your mischievous grin again. So we can only wish you the best of everything as you turn the next bend in your road.

Goodbye, Georg Lind. And God bless you.



Foreword

For many years, we have admired the upperclassmen and envied all their activities—the Prom, the Legend, the Tartan, Class Day, Commencement. Now we, too, have entered the intriguing land of Seniors full of places to go, things to do, and people to see. The tears and heartaches we experience will soon fade, but the pleasant memories of our recklessly great Senior year will ever remain, captured in the pages of our legend.

ADMINISTRATION

Seated: George F. Croushore, Raymond M. Shimshock, Richard Keim, Chester Shank, Paul Kendi, Jr., Philip R. Null, Elmer J. Keller, adet, Shirer, Ella Moore Standing: Edward Lochinger, Lucian D. Suter, Clarence H. Lewandowski, Irvin Younkin, Frank Stoner, Jr., ank Smodic, Thomas Bainbridge, Edward T. Bambrey

Our present school board has been especially busy with their various jointure problems . . . Without the guidance of this fine group of responsible people, our school could not function in such an effective manner nor overcome its problems.

Administration

As a result of the jointure which became effective last year the administration has had much work to do. But in spite of the many problems that are constantly arising, they are always willing to come to our aid with help and advice. These men are well liked and do much to help the students.

Class Song

Tune (Hawaiian Wedding Song)

This is the moment,

We've waited for,

We can hear our hearts singing

Soon bells will be ringing

This is the moment of sad "Aloha"

We will love you always and forever

And we promise that we'll not forget you

Dear Southmoreland, as we sadly leave you

Sharing all the fun we've had together,

Treasuring all the victories and the heartaches,

Now that we are through, we'll remember you,

So dear Southmoreland High

Our heart we leave with you

And now to you we say farewell.

ACTIVITIES

Legend

The Legend is the senior yearbook, which is published annually by the students. The members who work on a voluntary basis, must have the capacity to visualize, direct, manage, write, and edit. The production of the yearbook is a challenge to every member of the staff. Organized into four staffs—the write up, lay-out, sales and advertising, and typing. The students have relinquished much of their free time throughout the school year, and have devoted their energies toward presenting a book in which they have much pride.

3 — 1 Act Plays

Of the 3 one-act plays opening the new Southmoreland dramatic program, THE BRICK AND THE ROSE was probably most important. While THE PRIZE PLAY, a ten minute peek through child's eyes at the world of adults, and Edward Albee's THE SANDBOX both faced lighting and set problems, Lewis John Carlino's play for voices stretched the imagination of actor and audience to the limits as—through narration and dialogue alone—young Tommy's tragic slum world bit by bit was forced to reveal its horrible beauties.

To Russian-ruled East Germans, Stalin Alley has to be heaven on earth. It's all they have. Rising across from the bombed-out apartment of financial clerk, Gustom Grothe, this sparkling living center is a gnawing reminder that, for loyal Communists, promotion can be more than to own reward. Gustom's chance to live there after he is named assistant Finance Minister is spoiled when his daughter Ingrid falls in love with a happy-go lucky American tourist. This, and Frau Holle's perfume smuggling, spur an investigation by Secret Police Colonel Kubitscheff, who tries his best trickery but loses the game when Bowie Coyle leads the Grothe family to a hopeful future in West Germany.
